NOTICE OF NOMINATION AND ELECTION 2022 AMO ELECTION OF NATIONAL OFFICERS

TO: ALL MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN MARITIME OFFICERS (AMO)

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

This is the American Maritime Officers' official notice of the upcoming nominations period during which nominations will be accepted for the seven elected positions set out in the National President's Pre-Balloting Report. In accordance with the timetable set out in Article XI, section 1(c) of the American Maritime Officers National Constitution, nominations must reach National Headquarters no earlier than 1:00 P.M. EST May 4, 2022 and no later than 1:00 P.M. EST June 1, 2022.

The National President's Pre-Balloting Report, which was mentioned in the paragraph above, is included with this notice. It was approved by the Membership at the regularly scheduled April Membership Meeting and identifies the seven AMO National Executive Board positions that will be up for election during the 2022 AMO National Election: National President, National Secretary Treasurer, National Executive Vice President, National Vice President-Deep Sea, National Vice President-Great Lakes, National Vice President-Inland Waters and National Vice President-Government Relations.

Article XI, Section 1(b) of the AMO National Constitution sets out the requirements for submitting nominations. For questions related to the nominations process, Members may submit inquiries via email to amoelections@amo-union.org.

At the regularly scheduled June Membership Meeting, after nominations have closed, a Credentials Committee will be elected from the Membership. The Credentials Committee, per Article XI, section 2, determines whether persons nominated have been nominated correctly and possess the necessary qualifications.

The most recent amendments to the AMO National Constitution were published and sent to all Members in the March 2022 AMO Newspaper. Copies of the full AMO National Constitution were included in the March 2022 AMO Newspaper. The AMO National Constitution is also available online at www.amo-union.org and at National Headquarters, 601 S. Federal Highway, Dania Beach, FL 33004.

Fraternally,

Paul Doell
AMO National President
