PREAMBLE

We, the members of American Maritime Officers, (AMO), believe in the United States as a government of the people, by the people and for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic, a sovereign nation of many sovereign states, a perfect Union, one and inseparable, established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives. We therefore believe it is our duty to our country to love it, to support its Constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its flag and to defend it against all enemies.

The independent mailing and balloting service and all members of the Committee shall sign the report, without prejudice however to the right of any Committee member to submit a dissenting report as to the accuracy of the count and the validity of the ballots, with pertinent details.

Only members in good standing shall be entitled to be present as observers at the tallying of the ballots.

(c) The independent mailing and balloting service and the Tallying Committee are also charged with the receipt and evaluation of written protests by any member who claims an improper denial of his or her right to vote. If they both find the protests invalid, they shall dismiss the protests and so inform the protesting member, by email or overnight mail on the day of dismissal.

If they both find the protests valid, and the vote or votes can affect the outcome of the election, the independent mailing and balloting service and the Committee shall order a special re-run election for the office so affected on such terms as are practical. If the Tallying Committee and independent mailing and balloting service disagree on ordering a special re-run election, a special re-run election shall be subject to approval or disapproval by a majority of the membership at the next regularly scheduled membership meeting at Headquarters. The report of the independent mailing and balloting service and the Committee shall include a brief summary of each protest received, the name and book number of the protesting member, and a summary of the protest’s disposition.

The meeting shall be officially reconvened in order to receive the preliminary report including the tally of the independent mailing and balloting service and Tallying Committee. A majority of the membership, at that meeting, may order a recheck and recount where a dissenting report alleging a miscount or the counting of an ineligible ballot has been issued by one (1) or more members of the Tallying Committee.

(f) The candidate or candidates receiving the highest vote shall be deemed elected. In the event of a tie vote for office, the National President shall, within 10 days, direct a runoff election among the candidates receiving the tie vote; the runoff election shall be a mail ballot referendum conducted for a 90-day period in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

(g) Any challenge to the conduct of the election of National Officers (other than appeals by disqualified nominees for candidacy governed by Section 2 of this Article) shall be made not later than 20 days from the date of the preliminary report and tally of the Tallying Committee. to the National Executive Board, in care of the National President. The National Executive Board shall hold hearings and shall make its decision on such challenge within 30 days after the conclusion of the hearings all within 60 days after receipt of the challenge. If a recount is held pursuant to subparagraph (e) of this Section and a challenge to the conduct of the original count shall have been made prior to the decision to hold such recount, the challenge shall be deemed null and void. After the recount, if any, the complaining member or members may renew such challenge in accordance with subsection (g) of this Article.

(h) The decision of the National Executive Board may be appealed by the complaining member or members, in person or in writing, to the membership at the first regular membership meetings which next follow the receipt by the National President of written notice of appeal. The written notice of appeal must be received within 20 days after the date of mailing or notification of the decision of the National Executive Board to the challenging member. If the notice of appeal is received by the National President less than five (5) business days before the first such regular membership meetings, then the appeal shall be presented to the next regularly scheduled membership meetings. A majority of the members voting at such meetings shall control. The action of the National Executive Board and the membership on any such appeal shall be final.

(i) The final report by the independent mailing and balloting service, the Tallying Committee and the National President, under this Article, shall be entered in the minutes of the next membership meeting.

(j) The National President is directed and authorized to issue other directions as to the election procedures as are required by law. An appeal to the National Executive Board shall be in writing and postmarked not later than 60 days after receipt by the appellant of notice of the action or decision being appealed. The appeal shall be as specific and detailed as possible, and shall include all information available in support of the appeal. The appeal shall be addressed to the National Executive Board, c/o the National President.

The National Executive Board shall appoint a one (1) member Appeals Committee to consider the appeal and make recommendations. The appeal and any supporting information shall be forwarded by the National President to the designated Appeals Committee. After a review of the appeal and supporting information, the Appeals Committee may hold a hearing, unless the Committee concludes that no useful purpose would be served by a hearing in which event the Appeals Committee, in its discretion, may make recommendations on the appeal without a hearing. The Appeals Committee shall use its best efforts to complete consideration of the appeal and make a recommendation within 60 days, which, together with the full record, shall be submitted to the National Executive Board. The National Executive Board shall consider the record, together with the Appeals Committee’s recommendation, and shall make a decision on the appeal. The National Executive Board shall use its best efforts to render its decision within 60 days of receipt of the Appeals Committee’s recommendation, concerning the appeal and supporting documentation. Any National Officer who has previously participated in the consideration or disposition of the contractual grievance involved shall not participate in the deliberations or

The appeal will be presented at the next membership meeting. The National Secretary-Treasurer of the Union shall notify the appellant in writing by certified mail, return receipt requested, at the last known mailing address of the appellant within 60 days after the meeting of the action taken on the appeal by the membership.

Section 4.

Upon receipt of the decision of the membership, the appellant shall be considered to have exhausted his internal appeals.

Section 5.

The following rules, unless otherwise indicated, shall govern all levels of the appeal procedure:

(a) Contents of Appeal

Any appeal should set forth the action or decision being appealed, and should include all information and documents in support of the appeal. The appeal should be as specific and detailed as possible, and must be signed by the member(s) or applicant(s) involved.

(b) Calculation of Time

The time limits of Section 3 of this Article begin to run from the time the appellant first becomes aware, or reasonably should have become aware, of the alleged action or decision appealed. In the case of an appeal from a decision of the National Executive Board, the time limit shall begin to run when the appellant first receives notice of the decision. For purposes of this Article, “day” means a calendar day. If mailed, an appeal will be considered filed on the date it is postmarked.

(c) Time Limits for Appeal

To be considered, an appeal must comply with these time limits, if no other time limit is specifically set forth in this Constitution: appeal to AMO National Executive Board, 60 calendar days; appeal to AMO membership meeting, 30 calendar days.

(d) Extensions of Time

In the case of any appeal, the National President may waive the time for filing the appeal if warranted by the circumstances and otherwise not prohibited by this Constitution.

(e) Compliance Pending Appeal

The decision of the lower tribunal, in all cases, must be complied with before an appeal can be accepted by a higher tribunal in authority, and shall remain in effect until reversed or modified. The National President may, upon written application of an appellant, waive in whole or in part requirements of such compliance where unusual circumstances warrant.

(f) Counsel

Any party to an appeal before the National Executive Board shall be permitted representation by legal counsel, or other representative of the party’s choice. Unless otherwise specified in this Constitution, legal counsel is not permitted before the membership meeting. The party retaining legal counsel, or other representative, shall bear any cost of such representation. The Appeals Committee, or National Executive Board, as the case may be, shall be entitled to have representation or the assistance of legal counsel, regardless of whether or not any party to an appeal chooses to utilize legal counsel.

(g) Briefs

Any party to an appeal may submit a brief or other written statement of position.

(h) Hearings

Hearings shall be such as determined appropriate in the discretion of the tribunal considering the issue, and shall bring to light all facts and issues involved. The appellant and appellee (or their representatives) shall be required to appear, with such witnesses as they may choose, and shall answer fully and truthfully all questions put to them. The parties shall be afforded full opportunity to present their respective positions on all matters bearing on the action, decision, or penalty under review. A hearing held by the National Executive Board, through its Appeal Committee, shall be held at a Union office, as close as possible to the locality from which the appeal originates in order to minimize the expense and inconvenience to the parties.

Section 6.

It shall be the duty of any member, applicant or group of members or applicants, if aggrieved by any action, decision or penalty imposed, to exhaust fully the member, applicant or group remedy and all appeals under this Constitution and the rules of this Union before going to a civil court or governmental agency for redress.

ARTICLE XXVII
Savings Clause

The provisions of this Constitution shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with all applicable laws. If any provision of this Constitution shall be declared invalid or inoperative by operation of law or any Court of law, the National Executive Board shall have the authority to suspend the operation of such provision during the period of its invalidity and to substitute a provision which meets the objections to its invalidity and which will be, to the extent possible, in accord with the intent and purpose of the invalid provision. The remainder of this Constitution or the application of such Article or Section to persons other than those as to which it has been held invalid, shall not be affected.
